Included are:

- your personal Leadership Circle Profile, with which you will work in Certification
- debrief session of your personal LC Profile by a TLC Consultant before the course starts
- one free LC profile (value €270) which you will use with your first client after the course
- if required you can request 1 hour consulting time with a TLC Consultant after Certification to deepen your learning on profile interpretation, selling, design of interventions etcetera
- debriefing and consulting will take place by telephone or skype
- review of your reflective learning exercise which you need to complete to become certified
- Optionally you can expand your training with Collective Leadership, a one-day experiential training to learn how to use the Leadership Culture Survey (LCS)
- Completion of the 3 days TLCPC training program is required before attending the Collective Leadership program.

Prerequisites for Certification:

- After you submit your registration, you will be contacted by phone to establish your credentials and required coaching experience prior to acceptance
- Registration closes about 1 month prior to the program to allow for the completion of your profile and the scheduling of your debrief session in the three office days before the course starts.
- Your personal LC profile needs to be finished at least 16 days before the course starts. You cannot attend the course without your personal LC profile.
- To get Certified you need to:
 - Participate fully on the three days of the course
 - Practice by ordering and debriefing your free profile within one month after course
 - Complete a reflective learning exercise after the course
