

SUZANNE KIETSELAER

MANAGING DIRECTOR OF GLOBAL COACHING

FULL CIRCLE GROUP
& THE LEADERSHIP CIRCLE

Suzanne Kietselaer is an acknowledged global specialist in adult development and executive coaching and an experienced executive coach and senior leadership facilitator, facilitating transformation with leaders, leadership teams and organizations.

She has over 15 years of experience as a facilitator and coach and she worked at various international coaching and training companies. She fulfilled a number of leadership roles herself, most recently as VP of Coaching at a Dutch-based global training and coaching firm, where she has built a coaching department of >100 coaches executing more than 15.000 hours of coaching per year.

Suzanne is an experienced facilitator of leadership programs and workshops and has delivered over 2500 hours of individual coaching. Her professional passion is focused on senior leadership team development and on supporting leaders to work from their strengths and show courageous authenticity. She also designs and implements large transformation programs for multinationals. Her expertise is in the development of leaders who find themselves in high levels of change and uncertainty, and/or are transitioning into new roles.

Suzanne is a recognized authority on evidence-based coaching and the content leader of the Master Human Development (an NVAO accredited Master). Before working as a trainer and coach Suzanne worked as an assessment psychologist.

Suzanne holds a Master in Psychology from the Radboud University of Nijmegen and she is a licensed coach (CPCC level at CTI) and an accredited practitioner for The Leadership Circle, The Leadership System, MBTI, NEO-pi, RET (Rational Emotive Therapy), Rose of Leary and ORSC (Organizational Relationship and Systems Coaching). She currently holds a role as FCG/TLC's Global Head of Coaching.
